THE TAX ON LOOMS

(From a Correspondent)

An annual tax of two rupees has been recently levied on every loom by the Village Panchayet of Itakadibbanahalli, Madugiri Taluk. It is difficult for the weavers to bear this extra burden in addition to lack of capital and cheap material. It is a universally-recognised fact that the weavers are not at all in a position to meet with the keen competition of foreign machine-made goods. Such indigenous industries, if they have to successfully survive in the country cought to be protected by the Government with the supply of capital and other facilities. Bounties also are given to such industries. Now the tax that has been laid on the looms by village panchayat is superflous and makes the lot of the weavers very miserable. On submitting an application to the Village Punchayat, the weavers of the place got a reply that the said tax could not be abolished. The weavers humbly request the higher authorities to reddress their grievances by abolishing the tax alluded to.

17) The tax in question is an obligatory one and under sec 36 (3) of the Act the Board is competent to make provisions for exemptions in favour of individuals or a class of individuals, subject to such rules as may be prescribed in this behalf. The rules now in force provide for exemption but ~~~~ the case in question is not one such under sec 45 of the Act, the Dpcom. is the chief controlling authority in respect of all matters relating to the administration of panchayats in the district and under sec 47 of the Act the Dpcom may annul any proceedings which he considers to be not in conformity with laws.

18) But the tax in question is in accordance with laws & rules in force

19) As taxes are to be levied to carry on the duties obligatory, discretionary & delegated, the village panchayats have to levy the same and no provision seem to exist to set aside the levy of taxes ~~~~ by panchayats. If circumstances the amount may perhaps be reduced after consulting the Dpcom. having regard to the local conditions of the places and the functions devolved on the panchayats
